PROGRAMME

Thursday 26 September 2019
‘Sala del Cenacolo’, Piazza in Campo Marzio 42, Roma
14.00-16.00, followed by a cocktail reception until 17.00

Hosted by
Senator Michela Montevecchi and Alessandro Fusacchia, Member of Parliament

Seminar on Multilingualism: International standards for language ability
The seminar will consider how clear standards and mutual recognition of language qualifications can encourage and support the learning of a wider range of languages, and enhance the educational and professional opportunities of Italians across Europe and beyond.

Moderated by Angeliki Salamoura, Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
<th>Speaker/Institution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 14.00-14.10 | Welcome
Alessandro Fusacchia, Member of Parliament
Co-host                                                            |                                                    |
| 14.10-14.25 | Setting the scene
&
Common European Framework of Reference for languages (CEFR): What is new and why is the CEFR still relevant for language education? | Angeliki Salamoura
ALTE (Association of Language Testers in Europe)               |
| 14.25-14.45 | So, is English alone really enough?                                   | Ülle Türk
Estonian ministerial adviser and linguistics expert          |
| 14.45-14.55 | Short Break (time permitting)                                         |                                                    |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
<th>Speaker/Organiser</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 14.55-15.05| AI and language learning, teaching and assessment: A peek into the future              | Angeliki Salamoura
Principal Research Manager, Cambridge Assessment English
Sarah Ellis
Senior Assessment Services Manager, Cambridge Assessment English |
| 15.05-15.20| Opening up the choice – the European Commission’s new Recommendation on language learning | Vito Borrelli
Deputy Head, Commissione Europea - Rappresentanza in Italia |
| 15:20-15:30| Between plurilingualism and lingua franca: the university for foreigners of Perugia and the comprehensive approach to international relations | Prof. Emidio Diodato
Università per Stranieri di Perugia |
| 15.30-15.40| Multilinguismo a scuola in Italia                                                        | Giulia Peri
Centro CILS, Università per Stranieri di Siena |
| 15.40-15.50| Discussion and Q&A                                                                      |                                                                                  |
| 15.50-16.00| Closing remarks                                                                         | Senator Michela Montevecchi
Co-host |
| 16.00-17.00| Cocktail reception and networking                                                        |                                                                                  |