ALTE Introductory Course in Language Testing

11th – 15th September 2017 – Leuven, Belgium

Practical information for course participants
Travel Information

Travelling to Leuven is easy. There are direct plane connections between Brussels and most other capitals in Europe, and high-speed trains to all neighbouring countries. From Brussels you can reach Leuven in 15 to 30 minutes.

Do not confuse Leuven (Louvain in French) and Louvain-La-Neuve, since these are two different towns (cool story about how the former and the latter parted ways though).

By plane
There are two main airports in Belgium: (1) Brussels Airport and (2) Brussels South Charleroi (mainly for low-cost carriers). We recommend arriving at Brussels Airport because it offers easier and faster connections to Leuven. A direct train connects Brussels Airport to Leuven in 15 minutes and costs €9.10. This train runs twice every hour.
Connections from Brussels South Charleroi Airport to Leuven involve an intricate combination of buses, trains and sheer luck. It will take you at least 90 minutes to Leuven.

By car
Leuven can be reached easily by car. The E40 highway connecting Brussels and Liège runs through Leuven. The E314 highway links Leuven with the province of Limburg and from there on to Maastricht and Aachen, all in about one hour.
There are different car parks in Leuven to choose from.

Out and about
A cool thing about Belgium is that it’s so easy to scoot back and forth across the country (it’s tiny). From Leuven there are direct train connections to Brussels (cool place, if you know where to go), Bruges (quintessentially quaint. Pack up on your lace here), Antwerp (hipster alert), and Gent (which totally rocks).

Lunch

Please don’t leave Leuven without having fries at a frietkot. Follow your nose, not your physician, and don’t say no to some mayo!
Food that may not clot your arteries immediately is served here:

De Appel, Ravenstraat 15
Salads, sandwiches, pasta (and an occasional microwave ping)
1 minute from venue

Café Commerce, Herbert Hooverplein 16
Classic place for a lunchtime beer, but do not expect haute cuisine
2 minutes from venue

Bocata, Maria Theresiastraat 12
Lovely sandwiches. The big ones have their own zip code.
2 minutes from venue.

La Paz, Tiensestraat 73
Fresh soup & bread - a healthy option
3 minutes from venue

Coup de Soup, Vital De Costerstraat 2
Fresh soups & Bread – a healthy option
3 minutes from venue

Thai Snack House, Alfons Smetsplein
Cheap and tasty Thai curries
5 minutes from venue

Le Mustache, Tiensestraat 129
Bagels, salads, sandwiches & good coffee
7 minutes from venue

Lunch options abound around the Tiensestraat (in the part between Hooverplein and the Grote Markt). They are only 5 minutes from where all the events take place.

Dinner

The place to be for dinner is the street called Muntstraat. You will find all kinds of cuisines in this cozy little street: Belgian, Mexican, Chinese, Italian...

Other options are:

- Medina, Blijde Inkomststraat 31  Moroccan
- Thai House, Tiensestraat 56   Thai
- Masalatop, ’s-Meiersstraat 3  Indian
- O’Fado, Parijsstraat 49        Portuguese
- De werf, Hogeschoolplein 5  Simple, mainly Flemish food
- Lukemieke, Vlamingenstraat 55 Veggie & vegan
- De wiering, Wieringstraat 2  Belgian cuisine
Just a drink

Coffee & tea
Anna Specialty Coffee & Tea, Leopold Vanderkelenstraat 27 Swartehond, Parijsstraat 48
Both are cosy places with good coffee

Belgian beer (anywhere, really, but also here)
De Fiere Margriet, Margarethaplein 11
Lots of local beers, old school Flemish interior
Blauwe Kater – Hallengang 1
99 different kinds of beer in a wonderfully scruffy interior
The Capital, Grote Markt 14
2000 different Belgian beers. Yes. Two thousand!
Domus, Tiensestraat 8
Lots of beers from the home brewery, connected to the pub through a 'beer pipeline'.

Wine
Convento Wines & Antiques, Mechelsestraat 87

Cocktails
Vila Ernesto, Mechelsestraat 51
Tropical cocktails and Latin vibes
